LATER. - Since the completion of the above table, a report from Bledsoe, Overton, Fents ress and Van Buren, has been received, which if it should prove correct, will materially change the result. According to that report, Johnson has a gain of 120 in Bledroe, and 511 in Fentress, Overton and Van Buren. This reduces Gentry's nett gain to $59,according to

It should be borne in mind, however, that many of these reported gains on both sides are unreliable, and the official vote will materially change the result. For instance, there is good reason to doubt the report of a gair for Johnson in Obion of 211. The only reliable report we have from that county gives Gentry a nett gain of 21, and three precincts to hear from. From Blount there are conflicting reports, also. The report from Hickman is improbable, as it gives a larger gain than the entire Whig vote for Henry.

The Result.

We have reports from every county in Mid dle Tennessee, all but three in West Tennessee and thirteen in East Tennessee. Leaving out the report from Bledsoe and Overton, Fentres and Van Buren, which is at least of doubtful correctness, especially from the last named counties, and Gentry has to make a gain of 1271 in the counties to hear from. We are confident that the official returns from the counties reported in our table will materially change the result. Altogether the case, though a desperate one, is by no means hope less. Sieker men have recovered.

ANECDOTE OF BRANT. - Brant, the famous Indian Receiving, Forwarding and Commission chief, was notable for his wit and his bravery, and often made as good a retort, as any attributed to the keenest of his white brethren. On one occasion a braggart captain was boasting what HE would have done had he met the warrior in a certain emergency. "I'll tell you," said Brant, "what you would have done-you would have followed the example of another boaster, who, on meeting me face to face, took to his heels, and never stopped H until he arrived in Albany-which he chanced to enter during a great conflagration. Hearing the Dutchman cry, 'broant, bruant!' (fire, fire!) he only ran the harder, exclaiming, 'There, that cussed In-dian has got here before me!'"

Learning from my agents and correspondents in various parts of the country, that my Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is extensively counterfeited, especially in the Southern and Western States, and finding that the pirates daringly advertise their pernicious deceptions under the name which belongs to my article, I think it necessary to caution the community against these venders of poison in disguise. I introduced the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps for the I introduced the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps for the purpose of supplying the medical faculty and the whole community with a pure medicinal spirit, which might be prescribed with confidence in all cases where stimulants were required, without producing the fearful consequences which invariably result from using adulterated liquor. In order to render assurance doubly sure, I had the article analyzed by chemists of world wide celebrity, and substituted if for exceptions that to however of distinguished. mitted it for experiment test to thousands of distinguished medical practitioners. The responses from these sources were of the most unequivocal and satisfactory character.-It is now before the public, surrounded with these guaran tees, and bearing these unimpeachable endorsements, and I call upon the community to protect themselves and metheir own health and my reputation—by frowning down and repudiating the piratical speculators who are pedilling their oul commodities under cover of my trade mark. No article had ever been imported from Holland into this market, un-der the name of Schnapps, previous to the appearance of Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, in this city.

The first importation being made into this city in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, which can be seen by the Custom House books, I deposited my label as a trade mark in the U.S. District Court of the Southern District of New York, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, and have the certificate in my po-session of that date. The great deman I which has thus been created for the genuine arti-cle, has set the whole hive of counterfeiters in motion, and the duty I owe to my customers and friends, and the public, compels me from time to time to put them on their guard against imposition. It has long ceased to be fashionable to "puff" patent med Icines, or do any thing to enhance their sale; not from any particular prejudice that has arisen in the public mind against them, but simply from the worthlessness of nearly all the "great remedies" crowded into the market. But occasionally a medicine that posseses real merit is brought into light-one that is really what it purports to be. Of this class, Sloan's preparations can be ranked with safety, for we have heard of no instance where his medicines have con tried, but that the fullest satisfaction has been given, and their immense sule will fully aftest their popularity.— Freeport Journal, Ill.
